Welcome to London

London is a destination like no other. It's a city where heritage and technology collide; where venues steeped in history and grandeur stand tall among towering skyscrapers which captivate the skyline; and where world-famous museums rub shoulders with entertainment attractions. It's also a city leading the way in innovative event concepts and solutions.

Home to more than 1,000 diverse venues, from blank canvas warehouse spaces and trendy pop ups, to purpose built conference centres, state of the art auditoriums, and luxury and boutique hotels. Whether it's for eight people or 35,000, an exclusive incentive programme or a city-wide tech event – London has it all!

The London Event Planner Guide 2016 will navigate you through some of the best experiences London has to offer, providing a comprehensive index and capacity guide of London's accommodation, attractions, venues and services.

Alternatively you can conduct your search online and use our venue finder at conventionbureau.london

London itineraries

Our expert team have created these inspirational itineraries to give you a snapshot of what London has to offer your clients.

FIRST TIMERS

DAY ONE

Morning: Admire London from a height of 135 metres on a 30 minute trip on The Coca-Cola London Eye. Follow this with a Big Bus Sightseeing Tour, passing all of the major landmarks such as Big Ben and Buckingham Palace in two hours, with expert commentary and the option to hop on and off.

Lunch: Visit The May Fair Kitchen for opulent fine dining.

Afternoon: See the Crown Jewels at the Tower of London and enjoy spectacular views of the River Thames at the Tower Bridge Exhibition.

Evening: Experience London theatre, from musicals such as Billy Elliot and Mamma Mia! to opera and ballet at the Royal Opera House or modern dance at Sadler's Wells.

DAY TWO

Morning: Stop by Covent Garden to enjoy boutique shopping and a unique atmosphere thanks to buskers and street theatre. Then take in The Courtauld Gallery at Somerset House or visit the London Film Museum.

Lunch: Take to the river with Bateaux London in a glass covered boat for a lunch cruise on the Thames.

Afternoon: Head to Bankside for a trip to Tate Modern and a tour of the beautifully recreated Shakespeare's Globe Theatre to experience how plays were performed at the time of William Shakespeare.

Evening: Enjoy sunset over the city with drinks at the OXO Tower, followed by some of the best steaks in London at STK.

DAY THREE

Morning: Take a trip to the British Museum, home of gems such as the Egyptian sarcophagi and the Rosetta Stone. Make sure to visit the gift shop for unique souvenirs.

Afternoon: Head east taking in the sights of London from the River Thames with the MBNA Thames Clipper from Embankment pier to The O2.

Evening: Do a spot of Bowling at Brooklyn Bowl, followed by a hearty supper, and then take in some evening entertainment at indigo at The O2, where the atmosphere is cosy. If you fancy something even more lively, head to Building Six for some late night dancing.

If you get stuck and need a cab, then Addison Lee will be there for you.

London itineraries

Royal history

Take a tour of London's royal locations, from Kensington Palace, the London home of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, to Banqueting House in Whitehall, home to the famous Rubens' ceiling.

During the summer the lavish State Rooms of the Queen's residence are also open to visitors. From March to October you can take a tour of the Royal Mews, where you'll see the State Coach and horses.

Take a walk through scenic St. James's Park to Westminster Abbey, the historic setting for some of the most famous royal Weddings and coronations.

Head to Hampton Court Palace, home of King Henry VIII and his doomed queen, Anne Boleyn, to explore its famous maze as well as a living Tudor world. Relax in one of the eight Royal Parks across the city, once used as deer parks for royal hunts, to formal private gardens, these green spaces are now open for all to enjoy.

Visit Kew Palace to catch a glimpse inside an intimate royal family retreat. Set in Kew Gardens, you can take in the Royal Kitchens, untouched since Queen Charlotte's death in 1818 and explore the family's cottage used for resting and taking tea during walks in the gardens.

Luxury London

From luxury hotels such as the Park Lane Hotel, recently renovated and Grosvenor House, a J.W. Marriott hotel, to designer shopping and exclusive restaurants, London has everything you need for a fabulously decadent break.

Team culture and luxury with a visit to the renowned Royal Academy followed by a trip to Fortnum & Mason, the Queen's grocer, for a traditional afternoon tea. Make sure you leave time to buy gifts in these classic gift shops.

Bond Street is home to all of the world's biggest luxury brands including Chanel, Louis Vuitton and Fendi, or if you prefer to take the hassle out of shopping, book a personal shopping experience at Harrod's By Appointment Service. Afterwards relax and enjoy pre-theatre drinks at one of London's top hotels, Claridge's.

For traditional tailoring visit Piccadilly, then head to Liberty for opulent treats or take a trip to Old Spitalfields market to sample everything from superb teas at Teasmith to vintage fashion.

To escape the buzz of the city, feel pampered with a pure indulgence body ritual at ESPA Life at the Corinthia, have a cocktail at Dirty Martini in Hanover Square, before heading to the Dorchester and Alain Ducasse's restaurant for a bit of dining in style.

Shoppers' delight

London is a shoppers' paradise. Try some of these suggestions for some shopping therapy:

Take a trip to one of the capital's two top shopping centres Westfield London and Westfield Stratford City. They contain all of the best luxury and high-street brands together with fabulous food areas for refuelling. Or head to the London Designer Outlet at Wembley for some bargain buys.

London's West End shopping district gives you easy access to the best stores, whatever your tastes. Oxford Street is home to flagship retailers such as John Lewis and Selfridges, whereas Regent Street and Sloane Street have some mid range to high end stores. Don't forget Shaftesbury Avenue and St Martin's Courtyard, off the main shopping area for fashion-forward brands, trendy homeware and top places for a bite to eat.

Alternatively, check out Carnaby Street, Seven Dials and Berwick Street for boutique brands, independent record stores, and bars and cafés ideal for resting and watching the world go by. In the evening, head to nearby Chinatown for crispy duck with pancakes and hoisin sauce.

For a trip out of London, visit Bicester Village for lots of exclusive offers and a VIP experience in luxury outlets such as Burberry, Jimmy Choo and Mulberry.

Radisson Blu Edwardian Hotels are all well located around the major shopping areas in London making it a natural fit for those multi day shopping trips.

Hidden gems

For visitors who think they've seen it all, London will always surprise. Some of these hidden gems will excite even the most frequent visitors.

To begin with, why not hop on one of the Santander Cycles, otherwise known as 'Boris Bikes' and discover London's hidden Regent's Canal Towpath. Continue your journey with a little bit of detective work to the Sherlock Holmes Museum. This Grade II-listed lodging house on Baker Street features waxworks, Victorian ephemera and a good gift shop selling Sherlock Holmes collectibles and novelty items.

Cycle down through the city's green spaces to explore the weird and wonderful at Ripley's Believe It or Not! In London's West End, Ripley's contains more than 700 artefacts including a life-sized knitted Ferrari, an 8ft Transformer, a mirror maze and the Impossible Laser Race. Be sure to make time for refreshments at one of London's oldest pubs – The George is the only remaining galleried coaching inn in London. Its origins can be traced back to 1542 and it now belongs to the National Trust. Shakespeare lived and worked nearby, so it's likely that he sipped a tankard or two of ale here.

Alternatively you could try your hand at cooking at the Cookery School, where groups of up to 50 are taught to prepare either a single dish or a three course meal. Naturally the tasting is the best bit!

London itineraries

Unexpected London

For accommodation, there is a wide selection of great hotels across the city, from budget citizenM at Bankside to St Martins Lane, with its new bar 'Blind Spot' in the west end, or for a more boutique offering, the Stafford London in Mayfair.

If you are thinking of holding a conference, 1 Wimpole Street features all the latest in meeting technologies, or try the British Library's conference centre in the heart of the City. In the east, the Crystal, by Siemens has a modern auditorium and Wembley Stadium, in the west, offers a wide range of meeting spaces.

For dinner Britain's tallest sculpture, the ArcelorMittal Orbit offers amazing views or the Shangri La at the Shard's Restaurant, Ting will spoil your guests. Hold an event alongside the sharks at SEA LIFE London Aquarium, or book a sparkling summer/winter party at The Pavilion at the Tower of London. For sophisticated dining in London's most upmarket district, hold an exclusive meal at Inamo St James.

Defend your party against 'the dark arts' by sending them on The Warner Bros. Studio Tour London – The Making of Harry Potter, or try a high rope adventure at GoApe. The Velodrome, an Olympic venue offers teambuilding racing or you can run around town with a Wildgoose GPS treasure hunt.

For an unusual twist, try the cigar infused cocktails at The Mayfair or take part in a honey making course at the St Ermin's Hotel.

Historical London

Showcase London's peerless heritage with this exciting itinerary.

Your guests can lay their heads in London's oldest and most elegant locations, such as Brown's, a Rocco Forte Hotel in Mayfair, or at The Savoy which stands gracefully on the River Thames. If you prefer to be in the heart of Piccadilly then Hotel Café Royal is for you.

London's most iconic venues are available to hire for events of all types. Alexandra Palace, the birth place of television, has a capacity of up to 7,000 for a reception, or host your dinner in front of Van Gogh's Sunflowers at the world renowned National Gallery. Trinity House, otherwise disguised as the General Lighthouse Authority, has a mixture of grand and traditional spaces.

Once your conference is over, dine in style at the Natural History Museum or the Victoria and Albert Museum in Kensington, both of which provide stunning settings. The Crypt at St Paul's Cathedral or Middle Temple, are equally worthy of a visit for a private dinner. Rules, London's oldest restaurant, based in Covent Garden is ideal for smaller parties.

Round off your experience by recording a song at Abbey Road Studios, home of the Beatles fame or take a seat at the Chef's Table at The Hyatt Regency London – Churchill, where you will be wowed by the chef's creativity.

New and Old London

Show off London's contrasts with an itinerary highlighting the best of old and new.

Relax at the Hilton London Bankside or in the Royal Horseguards Hotel, or take in the sights of the Royal Docks on board the Sunborn Yacht hotel, which has recently returned to London. Amba Hotels have also now come to London in the form of the Amba Hotel Charing Cross and the Amba Hotel Marble Arch.

Impress your delegates with cutting-edge venues such as the artistic Barbican Centre in the City of London, or at centrally located IET Savoy Place, reopened in 2015 following an extensive refurbishment.

Large or small, ExCeL London, with its new International Conference Centre will have the space you need for a large scale exhibition or a smaller meeting with breakout facilities. The Hilton Metropole, London's largest hotel also offers a wide range of meeting and sleeping accommodation. Alternatively Park Plaza Hotels offer four modern hotels across the city.

Over a lavish meal, marvel at the restoration of the oldest tea clipper, the Cutty Sark, set in Maritime Greenwich, or take in views of London at ME London's rooftop bar, Radio. Alternatively, experience the Olympic legacy at the Copper Box and Aquatics Centre in Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, both of which are now open for events of up to 7,000 and 500 respectively.

Take a guided architectural tour of London, from One New Change to The Shard, where you will see new developments in the City of London, such as the Gherkin, the 'Walkie-Talkie' and the 'Cheesegrater' delivered by urban planning experts New London Architecture.

Further north the King's Cross St Pancras regeneration includes the Francis Crick Institute and Central Saint Martins College together with Google's headquarters. The St Pancras Renaissance London also sits in the heart of this part of town.

London itineraries

Value for money

A London event need not be expensive. This diverse itinerary won't break the bank.

Stay in comfort at the Travelodge or Ibis hotels in locations across the city. Or choose one of the many accommodation options across London University campuses such as King's College London or Imperial College London (summer months only). Accor Hotels such as the Novotel Blackfriars and the Novotel London West are very good value options for both accommodation and meetings.

Hold an event at a value for money venue such as Baden Powell House in South Kensington, or The Light at Friends House.

Sample British food in the oldest pub in London, the rambling Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese on Fleet Street, or enjoy live jazz at the Café in the Crypt at St-Martin-in-the Fields or try some tasty modern french food at Café Rouge in several locations in the city. You can also try affordable but elegant BMA House, home to the British Medical Association, which also offers attractively priced spaces for evening dinners and meetings.

Explore the city with a walking street art tour in London's east end, one of the cities most vibrant and fashionable districts. Or walk the secret parks of London, including the Chelsea Physic Garden. And not to be missed, see the origins of timekeeping at the Prime Meridian Line at the Royal Observatory Greenwich.

Finally Heathrow offers lower cost options than central London with seven great hotels: Sofitel London Heathrow Terminal 5; Hiltons Terminals 4&5; Radisson Edwardian Heathrow; Marriott London Heathrow; Heathrow Windsor Marriott; Doubletree Hilton Heathrow. All have lots of meeting space and a great selection of accommodation without the travel.

London with a view

See London from up above, with this exhilarating itinerary.

Stay at the Royal Garden Hotel with views of Hyde Park or at the brand new Intercontinental at The O2 overlooking the River Thames.

If you're looking for a conference room with a view, then London has plenty to offer. Try the River Rooms at the Mermaid which provide stunning views over the Thames, or the Lancaster London near Kensington Gardens.

Tower above the city at dinner time at Galvin at Windows, located at the top of the London Hilton on Park Lane, or try the subtropical Sky Garden at 20 Fenchurch, otherwise known as the 'Walkie-Talkie'. Alternatively, the Gherkin and the Shard offer more intimate private dining options.

The Hilton London Metropole, Europe's largest hotel, will open a brand new restaurant in January 2016 offering views over the city skyline. It will accommodate up to 200 people for private events.

Last but not least, soar to the highest heights with London Helicopter, which take groups of eight from their Battersea landing pad, or learn how to play roulette on the rooftop at the Hippodrome Casino. And if that's not enough to whet your appetite, take a trip on the Emirates Airline cable car to see all of London in its glory.

Partner index

London & Partners represents a range of partners across every aspect of event planning from accommodation to transport providers.
